Discover the South Pacific secret for beautiful skin and hair
Welcome to the Pure Fiji experience. Our products represent the lifestyle in the Pacific. Pristine environment, a bounty of fresh and natural ingredients, and traditions that have been in place for centuries - all utilised in a healthy way of living that comes so integrated in the culture, it’s as unconscious as breathing.

We would feel it impossible to maintain the enthusiasm we have for our product range, were we not convinced and assured that our product was of good quality.... but more than that - something special.

A unique product, bringing a timeless secret of well being and health to our customers.

The wonderful Island culture in Fiji not only encourages bodily health, but a great sense of community and group spirit. The team of people that support our production process, and the communities that provide us with raw materials are a major part of our operation.

We involve as many communities as possible in the production of our items, and without this network of human interaction, we would be unable to survive and grow.

Our passion for the product has led to new and exciting opportunities for all the people involved in the process. As a consequence of this passion and team effort - our product now reaches across the globe as an ambassador for the beauty of our Island home and culture.
Riding Ancient Waves

It has been over a millennium since South Pacific Islanders sailed their open canoes across the Pacific, using stars, wind, wave rolls, and the warm Pacific ocean currents to move from one island to the next. Prior to civilization of the Pacific, these liquid currents were also a sea-lane for a flotilla of drift nuts and flowering plants that traveled the South Seas until they were washed ashore on our sandy beaches. Famed for their beauty, Pacific Islanders discovered early on the power of these exotic nuts which were used to cleanse, soften and protect their skin and hair.

Pure Fiji brings you the best of these ancient traditions combined with advanced technology for today’s natural body care.

We are proud to offer you a complete line of natural beauty therapies containing uniquely Fijian plant extracts - hand selected to guarantee their highest quality.

Untouched tropical flora and the warm Pacific Ocean offer up exotic drift nut oils and powerful plant actives. Sugar cane, pineapple, papaya, passionflower and green coconut are freshly harvested and processed within hours to preserve their fresh bounty of naturally occurring nutrients.

Exotic drift nuts revered for their medicinal and beautifying properties contribute pure, unadulterated nourishment, moisturisation, nutrition and protection.

Deep-sea plants provide protection from the inevitable aging effects of the sun and the inimitable Ngi grass – living within reach of the ocean spray – contribute to the formula for enhanced hydration and drastically improved moisturisation.

Land and Sea providing all that is needed for good health with pure and natural body care.

This is the Pacific way - the way body care should be - naturally.

We involve as many communities as possible in the production of our items, and without this network of human interaction, we would be unable to survive and grow.

Our passion for the product has led to new and exciting opportunities for all the people involved in the process. And, as a consequence of this passion and team effort - our product now reaches across the globe as an ambassador for the beauty of our Island home and culture.
Cold-pressed drift nut oils

Pure Fiji’s secret is a balanced blend of exotic drift nut oils which include Virgin coconut oil, dilo oil, sikeci oil and macadamia nut oil. This time honoured blend has been used for centuries in the Pacific as a therapeutic remedy and also as a daily ritual - moisturising, nourishing and protecting skin and hair.

These organic oils are cold pressed at source, using unique methods developed by Pure Fiji which retain the integrity and molecular structure of the oil. As a result of these special processes the oil remains as nature designed it - exceptionally high in essential medium chain fatty acids and a plant source of Omega 3 and Omega 6. This traditional blend also contains a bounty of anti-oxidants, vitamins A, C, B and E and other nutrients for healthy looking skin.

A low molecular weight enables the oil to be readily accepted into the skin and drawn into the deeper layers of the dermis, passing with ease through the cell membranes to nourish each skin cell. The oil’s natural bounty of anti-aging agents enhances the barrier function of the epidermis, reducing trans-epidermal water loss, and improving elasticity of the skin whilst also working to accelerate skin regeneration and promote healing. The skin is softened and revitalized while being protected against further damage from exposure to environmental elements, leaving you with healthier, younger looking skin - naturally.

Pure Fiji’s Botanical blend of oils is the base for all of Pure Fiji’s products.

This contains mangiferin and 152 aromatic substances and is high in vitamins B1, B2, C, B6, B5 and B3 and panothenic acid. It also has minerals like zinc and magnesium, which increase the skin’s moisture retention whilst improving cell production and scalp circulation. For this reason, Dilo Oil is widely used as a traditional topical aid. Dilo oil is cold pressed and is a pure oil which is readily absorbed through the skin.
